4. New Business

Marshall Talley and Aminah Dixon from Macon Black Culture presented the Board with a letter regarding their vision for the community that they believe aligns perfectly with the enduring legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. They presented EastSideOutLoud Unity Day as a new annual event to the Board and requested that the Board sanction the event.

Members of the Board asked for clarity on the parade to celebrate the success of Northeast Football Team and EastSideOutLoud Unity Day.

There was confusion that they may or may not be the same event.

Marshall Talley explained that both events are incorporated into one and that he would be the point of contact to clear up any confusion this year and the years to come. MLK Board was invited to participate in the Parade.

The Board decided that there should be a proclamation for both EastSideOutLoud Unity Day and Northeast High School Football Team. Dr. Ficklin will work on preparing them.
