Call to Order

The first initial meeting of the Complete Street Compliance Committee was called to order at 10:08 a.m.

Each member took a moment to introduce themselves.

Adrianna Beavers, Assistant County Attorney, noted that this Committee is an official board of Macon-Bibb County and established by Ordinance. The Committee is subject to the Open Meetings and Open Records Act of Georgia. Ms. Beavers went over some of the stipulations under the Open Meetings and Open Records Act.

The voting membership consists of the following individuals:

- Executive Director of Planning and Zoning or his/her designee
- Chairperson for the Metropolitan Planning Organization or his/her designee
- Engineer or his/her designee
- Traffic Engineer or his/her designee
- Public Works Director or his/her designee
- Citizen's Advisory Committee Chairperson for MATS Technical Coordination Committee or his/her designee
- Facility Management Director or his/her designee

No action will be taken at today's meeting; it's more of an organizational meeting.

There was discussion regarding establishing a regularly scheduled meeting time. It was the consensus of those present to hold meetings every three months on the third Monday @ 9:00 a.m. Therefore, the next meeting of the Committee is scheduled for Monday, October 17 @ 9:00 a.m. Officers will be elected at the October meeting.
